LUNCHEON TO CO-OPERATIVE MANAGER

Mr. Archie M. Pratt Is Guest Of Honour At Representative Gathering

Under the auspices of the Board of Trade and local fruit and vegetable growers, Mr. Archie M. Pratt, General Manager of the Associated Growers of British Columbia, was the guest of honour at a luncheon held in the Lakeview Hotel yesterday afternoon, the opportunity being taken on the occasion of his return by motor car from a trip to the Lower Okanagan to welcome him to the Valley.

The spacious dining-room was filled to capacity with a very representative assemblage of the business men and agriculturists of the district. An excellent meal having been disposed of, Mr. A. G. McCosh, Vice-President of the Board of Trade, who occupied the chair in a few well-chosen words extended the welcome to Kelowna to Mr. Pratt upon assuming his new office, and assured him that he would find the people of this district generous, warm-hearted, good fellows. He referred to Mr. Pratt's distinguished record in co-operative marketing in California, and countered any criticism that had been made of the amount of salary to be paid him by the Associated Growers by stating that within the first two days he occupied his position he had made a saving in brokerage charges on cars of fruit that would amount to probably some $50,000 this year. As Mr. Pratt had to attend an important meeting that afternoon and the time at his disposal was limited, the speaker said he had no intention to make any extended remarks and he called forth with upon Mr. J. W. Jones, M.L.A., and Mr. L. E. Taylor, President of the B. C. Fruit Growers' Association.

Mr. Jones expressed his pleasure that such a large and representative gathering of business men and fruit growers had assembled to welcome the new manager of the largest marketing organization in the province. There was somewhat of a parallel, he said, between the oldest fruit trees in the Kelowna district and the General Manager of the Associated Growers. The first apple trees to be planted were imported nearly sixty years ago from California by a settler and his wife, and they were still fruiting. Now, after all these years, it was necessary to make another importation from California, this time of a man to handle the fruit.

The question of the headquarters of the new marketing organization was one that had to be decided, and he would take the opportunity to lay before Mr. Pratt some of the claims of Kelowna for consideration. He traced in a few words the difficulties attendant upon fruit marketing during past years, culminating in such an acute crisis last year that meetings had been held and a committee constituted to investigate conditions and the possibilities of improvement. The result of the work of that committee was that a convention of fruit growers was held at Kelowna last January, and a decision was reached to form the organization of which Mr. Pratt was now the general manager. The holding of the convention at Kelowna was recognition of Kelowna as the centre of the largest fruit district in the province, and it was a fact that immediately adjoining Kelowna was the largest acreage of fruit bearing land in British Columbia.

Mr. Jones then gave a number of figures in support of Kelowna's claims. He placed the acreage of irrigated land in the district at 15,000, with $2,000,000 invested in irrigation systems, or five times as much as was invested in any other one district. Not including the acreage planted within the last two years and omitting Westbank, there were 400,000 apple trees in the district surrounding Kelowna as compared with 257,000 in the Vernon and Oyan districts. Kelowna had 27,000 pear trees as against 9,270 for Vernon and Oyan, and only in planting apron and Oyan had only 20,000 trees as against 15,000. These were only a few of the details, and full data would be submitted to the committee of the Associated Growers directors delegated to deal with the matter.

The hearty support accorded by Kelowna to the new marketing movement was also a factor to be taken into account. Keen opposition was encountered at the outset from other business concerns, but the Kelowna growers and business men lined up, got behind the co-operative and put it over the top. Between 95 and 98 per cent of the local growers had signed contracts, than which there was no higher percentage in the province. In return for fruit, Mr. Jones made the claim that the Kelowna district produced more than any other district in the Okanagan.

Allied and cognate industries must also be considered. The three large canneries in the Kelowna district had turned out 225,000 cases of canned goods last year, and there was a very large evaporator plant. Six sawmills within a short radius of the city turned out hundreds of thousands of fruit boxes yearly. There was no other point in the Okanagan that possessed so many advantages as Kelowna for headquarters of the Associated Growers. The decision as to location of the headquarters was a knotty one to the headquarter, but he thought that on all the points advanced Kelowna's claim predominated and that the committee should decide in its favour.

QUEEN OF THE MAY IS ENTHRONED

Picturesque Ceremonies, Dances and Games Inaugurate The Reign of Queen Nellie

Officers of the Kelowna Girl Guide Association can well congratulate themselves on the success of the May Day Celebration which was held under their auspices last Thursday, as with the exception of some delay in opening the children's dance in the evening, caused by the non-arrival of invited guests, everything passed off very pleasantly and without a hitch of any kind.

The procession was a very pretty sight and started promptly at 3.30 p.m. from the Scout Hall in the following order. First came the Boy Scout Band, next the Scouts themselves led by the Scoutmasters, after them the Wolf Cubs, then the float, drawn by a fine team of dapple greys, on which the Queen and the Queen-elect and their Maids of Honour were stationed. The float was followed by a carriage, driven by Mr. Grant Ferrier, in which Mayor D. W. Sutherland and Mr. J. W. Jones, M.L.A., rode to take part in the ceremonies, the latter as M.C., and after them came the Guides, the Brownies and the May-Pole dancers. The float was very prettily decorated with flags and cherry blossoms and was a charming spectacle, but what most attracted the notice of the crowd was the excellent marching of all who were on foot. Scouts, Cubs Guides and Brownies tramping in fours to the Athletic Grounds like veterans. The Guides, who are perhaps too seldom seen in uniform, were led by Captain C. Lloyd-Jones, with Lieutenant D. Jones in charge of No. 1 Company and Lieutenant M. Moffat in command of Company No. 2. The Brownies were accompanied also by the officers, Mrs. A. Carruthers, Brown Owl, and Miss

MASONS DO HONOUR TO DEPARTING MASTER

Mr. D. D. Campbell Is Entertained Before Leaving For California

Last Friday evening the members of St. George's Lodge, A.F. & A.M., gathered together at the Lodge Room to give a farewell smoker in honour of Mr. D. D. Campbell, the worshipping Master of the Lodge, who left the following Tuesday for California. The evening was passed very pleasantly in listening to songs and speeches, and Mr. Campbell was very touched by the great many tokens of respect and friendship shown him by all present. Apart from his Masonic brethren, very many residents of Kelowna will regret Mr. Campbell's departure from Kelowna, where he has been a most respected resident for eighteen years, having been in the employ of the first firm to be established here, Messrs. Lequime Bros. & Co., for seven years, after which for a further period of slightly over seven years he was in the grocery business, which he sold to Messrs. Holmes & Gordon, his health necessitating a life which would take him more out of doors. Recently he has acted as secretary of the A. J. Smith Garage Company, in which he bought an interest. He carries with him the goodwill of all who have known him in the Orchard City, who wish him every possible success in his new environment in Los Angeles. Mrs. Campbell and Miss Campbell will remain in Kelowna until the commencement of the summer holidays.

SPECULATION AS TO FORTHCOMING BUDGET

OTTAWA, May 10.—Among the members the one topic today is tomorrow's budget speech, with much speculation as to what it will bring forth. In one respect the speech will be especially notable. It will be the seventeenth delivered by the present Minister of Finance, Hon. W. S. Fielding, and in this regard Mr. Fielding will probably hold the record among the finance ministers of the Empire. In the days of the old Laurier government Mr. Fielding, as Minister of Finance, delivered fifteen budget speeches, and his speech tomorrow will be his second as Minister of Finance in the present government.

Mr. Fielding keeps his own counsel as to his financial proposals, but it is not generally expected that he will have any sweeping changes to announce. Report has it that this year he will endeavour to balance his budget; in other words, that he will propose to pay all classes of expenditure. In his last budget speech he expressed the need for making every possible effort in this direction, and there will be keen interest in any announcement he may make tomorrow. Some increases in the British preference are expected.

SIXTEEN KNOWN DEAD IN OIL WELL EXPLOSION

CORSICANA, Texas, May 10.—Thirteen identified bodies and three skeletons in an oil lake were the known toll of death from the explosion yesterday of the gusher of the J. K. Hughes Development Co. The fire continued burning unchecked today and was visible for fifty miles. The smoke extended eleven miles from the scene of the disaster. Seventeen steam boilers were being assembled before daylight today about the flaming well and arrangements were made to turn on steam from the entire battery in an effort to check the fire.

RUTLAND

The orchards are now in full bloom and the district undoubtedly looks its best at the present time. The damage done by last week's frost was very slight. There will be a little less thinning to do on the lower branches of the apple trees, possibly.

Congratulations to Mr. J. W. Anderson, Rutland's representative on the board of directors of the Kelowna Growers' Exchange, upon his appointment as Vice-President of that organization.

The Rutland-Elks baseball game that was scheduled for Tuesday evening was postponed until Thursday, the date being more convenient to the Kelowna players. A junior game between Rutland and Oyan, set for Tuesday, also failed to materialize. After their defeat of the Kelowna High School recently the local Juniors have been looking for fresh conquests but have been unable as yet to obtain a game. Kelowna baseball men appear to take little or no interest in encouraging the Juniors in this branch of athletics. Although there is a cup up for competition amongst schools in the Kelowna district, no one can be found in the city of Kelowna to take sufficient interest to organize a junior league.

A meeting of representatives of the various organizations of the district was held at the home of the secretary of the Rutland Athletic Club on Wednesday last for the purpose of making preliminary arrangements for the annual community rally, to be held on June 4th. Messrs. A. W. Gray and R. M. Bird were elected chairman and secretary respectively of the committee. Sub-committees were appointed, the various societies being assigned different parts of the organization work, as follows: Sports programme, R.A.C. Refreshments, Women's Institute, Prizes, United Farmers (Mr. J. W. Anderson, convener), Advertising, Boy Scouts, Side shows, United Farmers (Mr. A. C. Kemp, convener), Dance (if possible) Community Hall Committee. Amongst other matters it was decided that no cash prizes should be given and that no open air concert be held. Further details of arrangements and programme will be given later. This will be the third year in which the King's Birthday has been celebrated in Rutland by the holding of a big community day and it is sincerely to be hoped that this year's celebration will be a most successful one. It is to be regretted that the chairman of last year's committee, Mr. T. Maxwell, who worked exceedingly hard and was to a great extent responsible for the success of the day last year, will be unable to assist owing to very unfortunate illness.

The local Scout Troop, under Scoutmaster Stanton, is making excellent progress. Attendance has been very good of late, no Scouts having been absent from the past two meetings. Patrol Leaders A. Dalgleish and J. Kemp, and Second E. Stafford passed the test for the Scoutmaster's Badge. Mr. A. C. Kemp was kindly giving his services as examiner. P. L. Kemp, Second E. Stafford and Scout H. Stafford also qualified recently for the Scoutmaster's Badge. An addition to the strength of the Troop has been the admitting of two Scouts recently moved into the district, Scout L. Elmore, formerly of the Medicine Hat Troop and Scout A. Claxton, who brings a transfer from the 12th Calgary Troop. Scout F. Pow has returned to the district once more and has been re-admitted. The strength of the Troop now stands at twenty-one.

We are glad to learn that Miss Zella Monford is home once more, her health having been greatly improved by her sojourn at Tranquille.

Mr. Ensley Dennis returned last week from the Cariboo district, where he has been engaged in mining business in connection with the Cedar Creek Mining Co.

FRENCH SENTENCE GERMAN TO DEATH

DUSSELDORF, May 10.—Albert Schloegter, one of the members of a so-called murder gang which has been carrying on a campaign of terror against the French occupation in the Ruhr, was convicted last night by court martial and sentenced to death. He was charged with espionage and sabotage.

WRECKED SAILORS ARE TRANSFERRED TO TUG

SEATTLE, May 10.—Twenty-three members of the crew of the steamer Lake Gebhart, stranded on the rocks near Umattila Reef, were transferred today to the tug Humacoma. Two men remained aboard the Lake Gebhart.

ULTIMATUM TO BOLSHEVIST LABOURERS

WASHINGTON, May 10.—The Central Labour Union of Seattle has been notified by the Executive Council of the American Federation of Labour that it must either rescind its endorsement of Soviet rule in Russia or continue its affiliation with the Federation.

ONTARIO ELECTIONS SET FOR JUNE 25TH

TORONTO, May 10.—Speculation concerning the date of the approaching provincial general election was set at rest yesterday, when the Drury government definitely selected June 25th next.

CO-OPERATIVE MARKETING OF EGGS

Advantages Offered By Existing Provincial Organization Are Explained By Mr. W. H. Fairley

A very representative gathering of poultrymen from the Kelowna district took place in the Elks' Small Hall on Tuesday evening, which was attended by approximately sixty people. The chair was taken by Mr. J. V. Ablett, President of the Kelowna Poultry and Pet Stock Association, who explained to the meeting that it was in the interests of all concerned with egg production to form a local branch of the B. C. Poultrymen's Co-operative Marketing Association. He was sorry that Mr. Milne, the secretary of the Association, had found it impossible to be present, but he had much pleasure in introducing Mr. W. H. Fairley, of the Poultry Branch of the Dominion Department of Agriculture, who would be able to give the meeting all details regarding the proposed co-operative egg-marketing association for this valley, having first hand information on all matters connected with the co-operative marketing movement.

Mr. Fairley, on rising to address the meeting, apologized for the absence of Mr. Milne, who, he explained, had been obliged to stay in Vancouver, owing to the fact that the general manager of the headquarters of the association was in West Kootenay, so that Mr. Milne, whose position is that of secretary, would not leave his post. He, Mr. Fairley, would briefly give them an outline of the history of the association, which had been organized four years ago, when a few of the poultrymen of the lower Fraser Valley, who could see ahead, and who were dissatisfied at being at the mercy of the packers, decided to try and form a marketing organization of their own.

Mr. Fairley next went into a very detailed account of the difficulties encountered by the original pioneers of the movement and how they had to fight against interests which were unfriendly to it. Mr. Fairley spoke of a period when, owing to the quantity of eggs received and the inexperience in marketing, also owing to the fact that a number of returned men having gone into the poultry business on the Lower Fraser had made the other eight or ten egg-marketers, were flooded with eggs and it became absolutely necessary to select a manager who thoroughly understood the marketing end of the business. This, he stated, had been no easy matter, but at last a very capable man had been found in Regina, one who understood the marketing of eggs from A to Z. This man had out-guessed all the dealers in Vancouver and had made the fortune of the association, which now controlled the egg market itself.

This year, Mr. Fairley went on to state, the association had doubled its membership and controlled over one million hens. The fortieth carload of eggs had been shipped east of the Rocky Mountains. Thirty-two of these carloads had rolled east after government inspection, the other eight cars containing express shipments made during the cold season. The people in the Prairie Provinces now realized that they could get their eggs, and better eggs, from B. C., and that it was no longer necessary for them to deal across the line. At the present time between one hundred and fifty and two hundred cases of B. C. eggs leave daily from this province for prairie points. Altogether some six million eggs have been already shipped this year. It was, the speaker stated, easy to tell the price farmers in the Lower Fraser would now be obtaining for their eggs, if the eggs shipped out of the province were still in it. More than $200,000 had been obtained from these eggs, no mean addition to the farmers' pocket books.

BIG SAVING IN BROKERAGE CHARGES

New Manager Of Associated Growers Accomplishes Good Piece Of Work

The outstanding feature of the first week in office of Mr. Archie M. Pratt, General Manager of the Associated Growers of British Columbia, has been his successful effort to secure a reduction of the brokerage charge paid upon cars of fruit. Hitherto it has been $35 per car but Mr. Pratt has effected a reduction to $25, which will entail a saving of from $35,000 to $50,000 this year, according to the extent of the crop.

Most of last week was devoted to negotiations on this and other questions with representatives of the prairie brokerage firms, as the result of which, while no exclusive deal was made by the Associated Growers with either concern, the Mutual Brokers and the Growers' Sales Agency agreed to handle the shipments of the co-operative organization, to the exclusion of other B. C. fruit, on an "open deal."

EAST KELOWNA

We have never seen the fruit bloom develop so rapidly as it did owing to the warm weather last week. On Saturday the McIntosh were only a quarter out but on Sunday they were out in full bloom. It was a wonderful sight. Bees and humming birds were buzzing and darting about and the air was full of fragrance. Cars from town were passing constantly and the occupants were loud in their praises of the beauty of the orchards. Fine as was the bloom last year, the bloom this year is ten per cent greater. Jonathans are particularly heavy. The only complaint we hear is that on a few orchards which have had heavy McIntosh crops for the past two or three years they are off this year. The frost on Wednesday morning seems to have done no harm.

The week has been one of disaster for the S. E. K. I. D. First of all, the domestic water system caused trouble. When people find their domestic water go off it is only human nature to think some one is neglecting them. However, if they would follow the Manager and the Water Bailiff about, they would find it not so. Every few hours the Water Bailiff goes round freeing the valves from dirt which the flood water is bringing down. The wire screen in the valve regulating the Lower Bench is particularly fine and very easily choked. A coarser mesh could be obtained but the only result would be to choke up all the trees in the houses, and when the water is running the Lower Bench now gets the cleanest water. Until we install a filtering bed we shall always have this trouble with flood water.

On Monday night an accident occurred in Canyon Creek. The grating on the new trestle bridge got filled up with dirt, the water backed up in the flume as the spillway on the bridge didn't act quickly enough, ran over, washed away the bank, and the supports on the upstream side of the flume fell, bringing down the Maginnis flume. Fortunately, the main upstream supports of the bridge were not injured. It was, however, a very disheartening sight that greeted the Manager when he hurried to the spot. He instantly commanded a gang of men and started repairs. Fortunately it is a very clean break. There is spare Maginnis flume on hand and most of the bridge timbers are not splintered and can be used again. With the very capable crew at work, the irrigation water should be on the C. C. I. again by Friday. It is curious that the installation of the system has never given any trouble. Major MacDonald inspected the break on behalf of the Department. He and the Manager are of the opinion that by an alteration in the position of the screen the water can be safely cleaned without any danger of a recurrence of the accident. Otherwise, an extra man would have to do night duty during flood water.

The Trustees held a meeting on Tuesday. Owing to the absence of the Manager, who was busy at the break, and the Secretary, who is ill, little could be transacted. They had an important interview with Messrs. J. E. Reekie, W. Marshall and F. Casorso, as members of the organization committee on matters connected with the paying over to the S. K. L. Company of the balance due on the purchase price of their part of the system.

There was a half-holiday in the School to allow of the children taking part in the May Day celebration. The Park Messrs. Powell, Allan, Denby and Perry kindly provided transportation.

On Friday evening, our boys had another football game with their old antagonists, Mission Creek. Our team was composed of J. Young, Walter and L. Smallman, H. G. and W. Murrell, H. Holland, A. Nott, Howard Carruthers, Bob Carruthers and F. Seddon. Mr. R. Smith acted as referee. It was quite an education to the boys to have him as referee, as he is an expert football player, knows the rules from A to Z and won't allow the least rough play, officials etc. After a good game, Mission Creek won by one goal (C. Chamberlain) to nothing. Mr. H. M. Armstrong brought the team to the grounds.

Mr. and Mrs. Foot have gone into town, Mr. Foot having been appointed caretaker of the Aquatic.

Mr. and Mrs. Powell spent the week-end at Oliver on a business trip. They were astounded at the changes they could see there in a short eighteen months. Oliver is quite a town now, with a good hotel. The railway is completed from Okanagan Falls to the town. For five miles the valley is dotted with small houses and young orchards, mostly of cherries and stone fruits. The trees in the first planted orchards are already looking quite big.

The codling moth gang have finished scraping the trees and have started banding. There were complaints of the slowness of their movements last year, but this year they appear to be working well and fast.

The chief topic of conversation here is criticism of the big salaries paid by the Associated Growers. The salary to the manager is not so much criticized as the salary to the executive. However, as has been pointed out to us, if they did not pay $9,000 to the executive they would have to have a meeting at least once a month of the whole board of directors, nineteen in number, from all parts of B. C. This would cost, including travelling expenses, $15,000.

SPLENDID RENDERING OF OPERA

Kelowna Theatrical Society Delights Large Audiences By Presentation Of "The Pirates Of Penzance"

By its splendid rendering on Monday and Tuesday evenings of Gilbert and Sullivan's famous light opera, "The Pirates Of Penzance," the Kelowna Theatrical Society added one more to its long list of previous successes, and the enthusiastic reception given to nearly every number by the large audiences in the Empress Theatre, endorses being the rule rather than the exception, showing no uncertain manner the popular opinion of the merits of the production.

The opera affords ample scope for amateur talent and is thoroughly characteristic, both in music and libretto, of the wonderfully harmonious and effective collaboration of W. S. Gilbert and Sir Arthur Sullivan as playwright and composer. Music and words could not be interwoven with more complete unity of sentiment and expression, and the plot of the work, thin and fantastic though it be, like most of the operas produced by the collaborators, is unfolded in a most easy and understandable way in song.

Good judgment was evinced in the selection of the cast, and a chorus of unusual excellence rendered the principals loyal and adequate assistance. The quaint and picturesque costumes of the ladies and of the pirates bold lent a very attractive colouring, backed by really beautiful scenery, the work of Mr. G. E. Emmens, of Okanagan Mission. The back drop showing cliffs along the Cornish coast was a work of art itself, and when the curtain rose upon the lovely moonlight scene in the second act, a burst of applause testified to the admiration of the stage setting.

COMBINES BILL IN COMMITTEE AT OTTAWA

OTTAWA, May 10.—The House spent yesterday in the committee stage of the Combines bill. Clause after clause went through and at adjournment about two-thirds of the clauses had been passed. Among them was clause 10, which provides for the appointment of a registrar. P. F. Casgrain, Liberal member for Charlevoix-Montmorency, said that the man chosen for such office should be a lawyer, but this caused cries of dissent from various parts of the chamber.

Clause 5 of the bill, which provides that any person residing in Canada who is of the opinion that a combine exists may apply to the registrar for an investigation, was amended by the Premier to read: "Any six persons, being British subjects." W. A. Boys, Conservative, Simcoe, objected to giving the registrar power to call for the production of documents under oath. Mr. King reiterated his stand that it would be necessary to give power to the registrar to obtain sufficient information on which to base his judgment whether an enquiry was necessary. Answering Mr. Meighen, he said it was proposed to conduct proceedings in private.

"Then the sun is not to be permitted to shine just yet?" commented Mr. Meighen. The clause carried.

BRITISH POLICY ON JUVENILE LABOUR

LONDON, May 10.—In the House of Commons yesterday the policy of the government regarding the recommendations adopted by the International Labour Conference at Geneva in 1921-1922 was enunciated by Sir Montague Barlow, Minister of Labour, who stated that the government intended to ratify a number of the conventions, including those prohibiting the employment of children under 14 years of age in agricultural industry and prohibiting the employment of trimmers and stokers under 18 years.

SOVIET MUST CEASE MOLESTING BRITISH SHIPS

LONDON, May 10.—The British warship Harebell has been ordered to the Murman coast to prevent further Soviet interference with British vessels outside the three-mile limit and to use force, if necessary, in performing this task. The House of Commons was informed today of this action by the Under Secretary for Foreign Affairs, Reginald McNeill.

GERMAN TRAIN WRECK COSTS MANY LIVES

BERLIN, May 10.—A telegram from Saint Goar, Rhenish Prussia, reports that a train operated by the Rhine and Moselle railway, which was carrying twenty-two bodies had been recorded so far from the water. The report is based on statements made by travellers arriving at Saint Goar, who add that the French have cut off access to the scene of the accident. Saint Goar is near Bacharach.

GERMAN PROTESTS WERDEN CONVICTIONS

BERLIN, May 10.—The German government has sent a note to the powers that have taken no part in the Ruhr occupation, protesting against recovered court martial convictions. The note accuses the French of making the blowing of sirens the basis of "a senseless charge in a secret plot."

HOSPITAL AID BY-LAW TO BE SUBMITTED

Ratepayers Will Vote On Hospital And Park By-Laws On May 22

The Council is establishing a record for perfect attendance, a full quorum again being present at the special meeting on Monday night.

A letter was read from Mr. Dowling, Chief Engineer for the B. C. Fire Underwriters, acknowledging receipt of intimation of the appointment of a second paid fireman as truck driver, and asking for information as to his duties, whether one man was on duty in the Fire Hall at all times, or whether the extra man worked outside the Fire Hall. He explained that this information was required so that the appointment might be recognized in the new grading to be made of Kelowna for insurance purposes.

The City Clerk was instructed to supply the required details.

Capt. E. A. M. Townsend wrote to the effect that he regretted he would have to give up his house occupied under the Better Housing scheme, but he had found a suitable person to whom it could be transferred, if agreeable to the Council. In this connection, an application for the house was received from Mrs. E. H. Russell Cowan, who is prepared to take it over on the same terms as made with Capt. Townsend. The matter was left in the hands of the Ald. Shepherd, chairman of the Better Housing Committee, and the City Clerk to be dealt with.

A legal opinion was received from Messrs. Burne & Weddell, City Solicitors, as to the tenure of office of the municipal auditors. They held that, in view of the wording of the resolution of appointment, the term was for a year and it could be terminated only at the end of the year. Reasonable notice, say six months in advance, should therefore be given.

Further consideration of the subject was deferred to a future meeting.

In reply to a request by the Council for details of the contemplated expenditure upon buildings by the Kelowna Hospital Society to meet which the Council had been asked to place a By-Law before the ratepayers for approval, Mr. G. R. Binger, Secretary of the Society, wrote that the money $18,000 was required for building a Nurses' Home on the Hospital property, moving the laundry from under the Hospital to a separate building to be erected, and for turning the space under the Maternity Building into wards.

It thus appeared that the Directors of the Society had dropped an isolation hospital from their building programme, but it was thought advisable to invite the attendance of Mr. Binger in order to obtain confirmation, and he responded to a telephone message to that end. Answering questions by the Mayor and aldermen, he explained that the amount of $18,000, to which the Council had asked the Society to reduce their request from the original figure of $25,000, would be insufficient to cover all the objectives aimed at in the first case and hence the isolation hospital had to be dropped, the other needs being regarded as more pressing, especially the Nurses' Home and laundry. He thought that the Provincial Government, which would give nothing towards the Nurses' Home, could be induced to make a grant for construction of an isolation hospital.

He gave a rough estimate of the proposed expenditure as: Nurses' Home, $14,000; fitting up wards in basement of Maternity Building, from $1,500 to $2,000; laundry, about $2,500. It was eminently desirable that the Nurses' Home should be built on the Hospital's own property, where it would be free from taxation and convenient to the Hospital itself. The position at present was quite serious, as the Society might have to give up the tenancy of Cadder at any time, and hence the isolation hospital had to be dropped, the other needs being regarded as more pressing, especially the Nurses' Home and laundry. He thought that the Provincial Government, which would give nothing towards the Nurses' Home, could be induced to make a grant for construction of an isolation hospital.

After discussion of the subject in which most of the members of the Council joined, the Mayor thanked Mr. Binger for giving up his enjoyment of the opera that evening in order to explain details of the Society's scheme, and assured him the Council realized that the Hospital Board had gone very fully into requirements. There was no desire on the part of the Council to differ from the Society but to help passage of the By-Law by placing it in such form that it would be acceptable to the ratepayers. He strongly advised that the Society hold a public meeting in order to lay their proposals and arguments before the people.

Mr. Binger thanked the Council for their goodwill, promised to bring to the attention of the Board points that had been brought up during the discussion, and then withdrew.

The By-Laws to be submitted were given three readings, as follows:—No. 371, to raise $18,000 for the purpose of granting aid to the Kelowna Hospital

BOY SCOUT COLUMN

Troop First Self Last!

Edited by "Pioneer."

8th May, 1923.
Orders by command for week ending 10th May, 1923:

Duties: Orderly Patrol for week, Cougars; next for duty, Beavers. Parades: The combined Troop will parade at the Scout Hall on Friday, the 11th, and Monday, the 14th instant, at 7.15 p.m. In addition to the Troop parades, special practices of the Orchestra, Parallel Bar, Horizontal Bar and Jumping Horse squads will be held, of which special notice will be given to the members of the squads.

In connection with our approaching 10th Annual Entertainment we refer our readers to the advertisement appearing elsewhere in this paper and would ask that wherever possible those who are planning to be present would purchase their tickets from a Scout beforehand. The Empress Theatre has been good enough to make arrangements with us whereby we are able to offer 20 passes as prizes to the Scouts selling the most tickets, as follows:—10 for 1st, 6 for 2nd and 4 for 3rd. We shall be glad to welcome visiting Scouts in uniform at any of our three performances and would ask all Scouts of our neighbouring Troops to accept this as their invitation. All Badges won during the past year will be presented at the Friday evening performance.

A great many tests have been passed lately, of which we report the following:

1st Class Cooking: Scout John Williams, before Mrs. W. Longley; P.L. Elwyn Williams, before Mrs. B. M. Loane; Second Gordon Haug, before Miss M. I. Reekie; and Scout John Foster, before Mrs. W. Haug. Scout K. Shepherd also passed his 2nd Class Cooking before the latter.

1st Class Signalling: Scouts Jas. Laidlaw and G. Haug and Scout John Foster, before Mr. F. C. Buck on the 3rd instant.

1st Class Ambulance and Ambulance Badge: P.L. Elwyn Williams, Second J. Laidlaw and Scouts John Williams and William Langley, before Dr. H. L. Bryce on the 24th of April last.

Naturalist Badge: P.L. Elwyn Williams, before Chief Constable Thomas on 21st of April last.

Carpenter Badge: Scout Donald Loane, before Mr. W. C. Mitchell on the 7th instant.

Cyclist Badge: P.L. Gordon Meikle, Scout Donald Loane and a reposs by Scout Jno. Williams, before Cubmaster Bartholomew on the 2nd instant.

Marksmanship Badge: Second Lloyd Cunningham (83), Scouts Ellis Todd (77), Douglas Backland (76), John Williams (70), Russell Williams (67), and Donald Loane (65) before Mr. Towell of the High School staff. The range was 25 yards in the open with a special target shooting rifle of 22 calibre belonging to Mr. Towell.

2nd Class Points of Compass and Ambulance: Scout Frank Furmerton, Mile at Scouts' Pace, Scouts D. Buckland, D. Lewers, F. Furmerton, H. Campbell, A. Alsager, A. Oliver, A. Graham, R. Weeks and C. Boyer, on the 7th instant.

Completion of 1st Class Judging: Second J. Laidlaw and G. Haug and Scout Jno. Williams, before Mr. Alister Cameron.

We are very grateful indeed to all the above mentioned ladies and gentlemen who have so kindly acted as examiners and helped us out in this our most busy time. With the exception of Tenderfoot and 2nd Class Tests, one at least of the examiners must be independent, that is, he or she must not be an officer of the Troop.

We offer our most hearty congratulations to the Girl Guides on the success of their Second May Day. Scout Ralph Ball arrived home from the U.B.C. a few days before and this gave a much needed addition to our Bugle Band which therefore turned out for the parade. It is not for us to blow our own horn (bugle), but considering the fact that the Band had not been playing for practically a year we do not think themselves as a matter of fact their performance makes us rather reluctant of carrying out our previous plan of disbanding them.

Provincial Headquarters advise us that they have received from Imperial Headquarters a long list of English Scouts who want to correspond with Canadian Scouts, and that they are very anxious to induce Scouts of this Province to correspond with Scouts Overseas, either in England or in some other part of the Empire. Any Kelowna Scouts, therefore, who would like to undertake this correspondence are requested to so notify the Scoutmaster.

STANDING OF PUBLIC SCHOOL PUPILS

Usual Examinations Were Dispensed With Last Month

The usual monthly examinations were dispensed with last month at the Kelowna Public School except in the divisions subjoined, so that the list of scholars who stood at the head of their classes is not so long as usual. Owing to April being a short month, most of the teachers arranged to combine it with May, and the examinations to be at the end of this month will take in all subjects in the curriculum. Hence the May report will be a very important one and will determine those in each grade who will be promoted without having to write for the final examinations.

The attendance shield for the best average attendance in April, was won by Miss Alice Perry's class, the figure being 98.7.

Division VI.—Junior Fifth, (Mrs. Asher): 1, Lillian Elliott; 2, Ernest Burnett; 3, Stuart Webster; 4, Frances Lupton, Eva Jenkins, Gordon Lewers, equal.

Senior Fourth.—1, Beth Harvey; 2, Frances Lewers; 3, Nellie Ryder; 4, Clara Guidi; 5, Isabel Nash.

Division VII.—Senior Fourth, (Miss K. Fullerton): 1, Edna Dunn; 2, Mildred Lloyd-Jones; 3, Violet White; 4,

WESTBANK

Rev. Mr. Sadler, of Peachland, was a visitor here on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, of Peachland, were callers on Wednesday last.

Engineer Groves, of Kelowna, was a business caller on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Drake and little boy were visitors last Thursday.

Miss Garnett, the public school teacher, spent the week-end at her home in Summerland.

Mr. G. McIntosh's tender was accepted as the water bailiff and repair man for the season.

Mr. A. Dobbin is now shipping out his lumber. The car-barge brought in four empty cars on Monday which are now being filled.

Mr. A. Nichol and his family, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Pound, motored to Wenatchee last Wednesday where they intend to spend a few days.

Mrs. Fulton has again commenced making ice cream, and if the weather continues as it has been she will certainly have a great call for cold drinks and ices.

Mr. J. Duncan, who spent last winter in the southern orange country, returned on Saturday morning to take up his former occupation as fruit grower.

Road Foreman W. Ball has obtained a Ford truck and a grader from the government with which he may work on the roads. They are now making a grade into the Dobbin Sawmill.

Mr. W. Ritchards, of Calgary, is spending a few days with Mr. M. Smith. Mr. Ritchards has been working in the Union Bank for nine years and is now looking over the fruit industry.

The Irrigation Board decided to follow the example of a number of the other districts as regards to paying of water arrears. No grower will have water turned on his land until his arrears are paid.

The snow in the mountains is now melting fast and is causing the creeks to roar and foam. Powers' Creek is rising fast. Between the two days, Wednesday and Saturday, it rose twelve inches and is still ascending rapidly.

A number of the Scouts left Saturday evening for Silver's Field, where they spent the night camping out. They had a splendid outing and received some good exercise. They cooked their own breakfast and returned about noon Sunday.

The Trustees of the Westbank Irrigation District are doing all in their power to put the distribution system in order for delivering water. They have three gangs working; one under each of Messrs. McIntosh, Clark and Jones. The C.P.R. is holding up the work considerably through delay in the delivery of material.

A small crowd of dancers received a treat last Thursday evening, when they motored to Kelowna and attended the Banff Orchestra dance. It was held in the Elks' Hall, and with an excellent floor, fine accommodations and splendid music, one could not keep from having a most enjoyable evening.

The Public Library held a meeting last Thursday at the school. A large number of the members were present and all the bills and accounts for the past winter were put before the meeting. They now have about one hundred dollars for new books, which will certainly buy a fine number. Some new books have already arrived and will soon be checked over by a committee specially formed for that work.

Miss McMynn and Messrs. Thacker and Pritchard held a meeting at the School House, on Monday afternoon, to line up the boys and girls for the elimination contest which is being held on Tuesday. This is to decide who will be the lucky ones to compete against the other schools at the Inter-School Track Meet held at Kelowna on Saturday. A number are taking part and we hope they will make a showing for our School. It is not so easy here to get good track boys and girls, due to the small number to select from, but they are showing their good sportsmanship in trying. They also decided on Westbank's colours, which are to be green and white. We all feel greatly obliged to the large places for being so considerate as to invite us to join them, and we hope they will see green and white in the lead of some of the events at least.

In his long journey from Montreal to the mouth of the Mackenzie river, and again to the Pacific ocean, made respectively in 1789 and 1793, Sir Alexander Mackenzie, while faithfully noting the condition of the country through which he travelled, mentions only thirteen places where the forest had been destroyed by fire. The past one hundred years, with the settlement, railway construction, and increased travel it has brought, has wrought such a change that anyone who followed Mackenzie's route across the continent could hardly lose sight of the vast fires since created.

Ned Wright; 5, Kenneth Griffiths. Division XIV.—First Reader, (Miss Mabel V. Wood): 1, Edna Parker; 2, Dorothy Perkins and Robert Weatherill, equal; 3, Wilfrid Lowery; 4, Malcolm Chapin; 5, Bernard Braden. Division XV.—First Reader, (Miss E. R. Austin): 1, Jim Hughes; 2, Billie Shugg; 3, Barbara Craig; 4, Joe Gaudin; 5, Margaret Luckings.

GIRL GUIDE NOTES

Another May Day over! Many comments might be made. Many difficulties had to be met for which the casual observer might not allow.

But we would just like to say that the Guides and the Guide Association are just as proud of the May Queen as are the rest of her subjects. Her sweet and unassuming dignity, quite captured the hearts of her people. The ex-Queen and Maids of Honour took their parts well and made a pretty scene. The whole-hearted way in which the Mayor and the Master of Ceremonies entered into the spirit of the day made the crowning ceremony a very pleasing event.

Another year the May pole dances may be on the green grass of the Park, as tradition calls for. The children could not have looked sweeter with their happy faces and dainty frocks, but jewels must if possible be set to the best advantage.

The May Day dance in the Scout Hall was a delight to onlookers as well as dancers. Here we had the real May Day atmosphere—grown-ups and kiddies; fathers and daughters; teachers and pupils; the Queen and her admiring subjects, little and big girls and boys.

The children are always ready but it is the older folk who find it hard at times to strike the right note. It is sad how difficult it is for Canadians to become as little children—perhaps fathers especially fail in this point. It is an art in which the French excel and one which we might well strive to acquire.

The Association would like to take this opportunity of thanking those who assisted with the day's programme. Mr. Simmons for the Theatre ad, the Jenkins Company for dray and team and time, Mr. Ferrier for his carriage, the city, the men who took tickets, Mrs. Duggan, who arranged the Queen's crown and flowers, Mr. D. McDougall who skillfully chased the stiffness from the atmosphere of the evening's programme—and from the feet.

The day's proceedings netted about $145 for the Guide Association. It will be devoted to financing the Guide camp to be held in July.

A meeting of the whole association will be called for May the eighteenth, when the details of the camp will be thoroughly discussed.

Owing to the high cost of sugar, honey, the original sweetener of the human palate, is coming much to the fore this year and the B. C. The unselfishness of cooks is an ever-increasing source of wonder here in our offices. An enquiry comes for a recipe and fully 50 per cent. of those who comply with the request sign as "Nancy" has, so we can only express the thanks of the enquirer and ourselves through the newspaper.

Your recipe made scones "better than he ever ate" and she made them with Pacific Milk, as you suggested.

GLENMORE

Mr. Percy Dunn placed thirty colonies of bees on the C. O. L. alfalfa fields last week.

Mrs. P. A. Lewis returned from a visit to Victoria on Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Doherty, one of our former school teachers, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Rankin.

Mrs. Robson, who has spent several months at the Coast, returned on Wednesday morning.

Reports still come in of frost damage on Tuesday night of last week. Cherries, pears, Macs, and Delicieux are reported to be affected on the low levels. We hope it is not as serious as some fear.

Fruit districts this week are a veritable fairyland. The present is the time to visit your friends and enjoy this vista of beauty which is now at the zenith. Next week will be too late.

Has every one finished ditching his orchard for irrigating? If so, perhaps he party who borrowed a ditcher, without permission, from a ranch in the centre of the valley will return it at once to the owner. Several times it has been suggested in this column that if an article is needed in the orchard, with rare exceptions, neighbours are willing to loan it. We cannot think any one would refuse to lend an article needed, if they were assured of careful usage. It is time that this haphazard way of taking things without a "by your leave," especially an unoccupied property, was stopped. Making a public example of parties doing this is a very unpleasant thing and one those most concerned wish to avoid. Yet it may become necessary.

Mr. and Mrs. Perron moved into town from their ranch last week.

Mr. David Corbett left on Monday for Calgary, en route to the East.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Andrews have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. John Andrews, with their two children Roy and Alberta, of Sherbrooke, Que., and Mr. Alfred Andrews, of Whitefield, New Hampshire. The three brothers are enjoying a happy re-union. They plan to visit Vancouver and Portland and return through Edmonton, stopping off at Druid, Sask.

Mr. Albert Cameron is visiting his mother at Druid, Sask., before she leaves for her home in Sherbrooke, Que., which she expects to do shortly.

Our school children enjoyed the May Day celebration at the Park last Thursday celebration of the kindness of Messrs. J. N. Cushing, P. A. Lewis, G. C. Hume, A. C. Dunnett and W. R. Reed, who conveyed them by car from the school.

We should like to see a large congregation on Sunday afternoon, especially of young folks for the Mothers' Day service. As Rev. J. Dow has another service to conduct at Benvoulin immediately after, he would appreciate punctuality, that the service may start right on time—2 p.m.

Mr. M. Lovell came in from Wintipeg on Friday afternoon to see after his interests here.

Warning signs for motorists have been erected by the School Trustees on either side of the School a short distance off. Placed prominently, they should help to check excessive speeding by motorists, who are admonished to drive slowly.

Mr. Allan Wallace spent a few days with his family at the beginning of the week.

Flood water for irrigation is at last available for the ranchers, who have been greatly concerned over the dryness of the soil where cover crops prevented cultivation.

The cost of fighting forest fires last year in this province was a little over $750,000, according to official statements, and approximately $23,000,000 worth of commercial timber was destroyed. It has been also officially proven that no less than ninety-five per cent of the fires were caused by carelessness. Logging operations were responsible for twelve per cent of them and campers for more than one-third. Insurance companies are now therefore declining to insure timber located near camping grounds.

One of the most interesting features of the recent Provincial Bull Sale at Kamloops was the stock judging by students of the University of B. C., the first prize being taken by F. Mutrie, of Vernon.

M. Coubrough and Miss M. Keyes, Tawny Owls. They carried garlands of flowers woven by themselves, were led by two sixers, Joan Foster and Mary Willis, who carried the Brownies' sceptre, a toadstool. Altogether, the spectacle of so many of the younger generation, all marching in good order and dressed in becoming attire was one of which any town the size of Kelowna might well be proud, which is being done here by the Boy Scout and Girl Guide Associations.

The Queen and Queen-elect descended from the float, and escorted by their maids of honour approached the dais, the route being lined by the Scouts, Guides, Cubs and Brownies. The Queen of last season, Miss Una De Hart, together with her Maids of Honour, Miss Kathleen Ryan and Miss Dorothy Harvey, were escorted by the Master of Ceremonies and the Queen-elect, Miss Nellie Dore, with her attendants, Miss Marion Meikle and Miss Frances Lupton, followed, accompanied by the Mayor. The Maypole Guides, Cubs, Brownies and circles around the dais and the following address by the Master of Ceremonies:

"To my Faithful People:—
"Just one year ago you called me from your ranks to serve as Queen of this fair domain. Today, after a year of happy service, in accordance with the time-honoured custom of our kingdom, I yield the throne and rules as Queen of May."

The devotion and loyalty of you, my faithful subjects, have made my reign a most happy one, and it will ever be a delightful memory.

"To-day we would render humble and hearty thanks to the Giver of every good and perfect gift for his protecting care, for the beauty and resources of the land in which we live, and for all the future that is ours."

"The year has been one of many and great blessings, no epidemic has ravaged our kingdom, no plague has come nigh our dwellings, the safety of our person and the peace of our realm have been carefully guarded by our standing army and maintained with all neighbouring states and the menace of war has never threatened."

"Our immediate advisers and councillors, and all to whom authority has been deputed, have excelled in faithfulness."

"During our reign important public works have been carried on. We would make particular mention of the extensive changes in the water system and the bringing in of electric light and power from Bonnington Falls."

"Our Council, Representatives, School Boards, and all public and semi-public bodies have served with great acceptance. We would record, too, our appreciation of the many Women's Organizations and the loyalty to the interests of our kingdom. On this day it is most fitting to speak in high terms of the work of the Boy Scouts and Girl Guides, and the organizations associated with them."

"It is with profound regret that we are forced to note the fact that the year was a somewhat disastrous one commercially, but through the clouds the rays of the sun are piercing and we confidently believe that the co-operative organization recently formed will bring lasting prosperity to the land."

"And now, with gratitude to all, and with happy memories, I yield the crown to Queen Nellie, bespeaking for her the same loyal support you have given me during my term of office."

The address of the retiring Queen was followed by the coronation ceremony. Ex-Queen Una crowning her successor with a wreath of blossom and flowers. Cheers were then heartily given for Queen Nellie and the band played the National Anthem. Mr. Jones next placed a ring on the new Queen's hand, which was the gift of Miss Charlotte Lloyd-Jones and Mayor Sutherland presented her with a bouquet and all present paid homage, and gave her three hearty cheers.

Mr. Jones next read the new sovereign's address to her faithful subjects, which was as follows:

"To All My Loyal Subjects:—
"It is a high honour you have done me this day. I become your Queen, not by royal descent, but by democratic selection. I shall try to be worthy of your confidence, and trust that I may so rule that you will never regret your choice."

"I desire to commend the wise policies and capable rule of Ex-Queen Una. It will be my constant endeavour to maintain the high standard of government established by her. I will retain in office her excellent advisers and seek to continue and advance the policies that are making for happiness and restoring prosperity to the land."

"During the year it will be my constant aim to lend my aid to everything that makes for the common good."

"The new co-operative movement has royal approval and is commended to every subject."

"It will be our immediate endeavour to secure the speedy completion of the Canadian National Railway to our capital city. The building of those highways, that will make possible freer intercourse with neighbouring states, will also have our early attention."

"Finally, I promise to place the common good above personal aims. I will try to be 'among you as one that serves,' and I ask you, as a people, for your loyal and sympathetic support, that, working together, we may make the name of our kingdom to be known in the world as a land of peace, prosperity and happiness."

"And now, by royal command, this day is declared to be a day of joy and merriment, and we call you from this solemn ceremony the enjoyment of the hour, that this opening day of our reign may be crowned with the memory of your perfect happiness."

The first official order given by the new Queen was that the festivities should commence at once, so the Maypole dancers, who had been very carefully trained, began the dances immediately.

in these times.

The speaker next explained a few essentials in successful egg marketing. It was absolutely necessary, he stated, to ship in carload lots. The eggs must also be collected quickly, so that large quantities could be handled at a central point, and an experienced staff at the shipping point was an absolute necessity. At present about two carloads per day are handled by the co-operative's employees at Vancouver. At the present time the experiment was being made of shipping eggs from B. C. direct to the Glasgow market, some twelve thousand cases leaving this month. The railway and steamship companies had guaranteed delivery at Glasgow within twenty-five days. There were two chances for success in connection with this shipment, one, that the eggs would be sold in Glasgow, in which case the eggs could be easily sold as "fresh," the other, that if the market was unfavourable, they could be put into cold storage and sold at the right time. Hitherto any business done with the British market had been in storage eggs alone.

Mr. Fairley next gave some information regarding the branches recently formed in this province. The one organized in Vancouver Island had originally a very restricted market. It had started with only fifteen thousand birds and now had over thirty thousand. In Kootenay the branch association had over twenty thousand layers and within three weeks of its formation had shipped three carloads of eggs. The week, the speaker stated, two carloads would be shipped from the Okanagan district, shipped by private interests, and the profits would not be reaped by the producers. It had been decided that Vernon was the best point for the headquarters for this district. Besides there being excellent shipping facilities at that point, good cold storage could be obtained, a very important matter. At the meeting held in Vernon recently the preliminary organization for an Okanagan branch had been effected and these were very precisely and prettily executed to music furnished by a portion of the Philharmonic Orchestra, after which the balance of the afternoon was spent in watching the various races in which nearly all the children present competed. Altogether twenty-five events were pulled off, the most important of which were the 100 yards dash for girls, won by Mabel Dore, and the half-mile race for boys, which was captured by John Williams, also the mile race, open, the winner of which was John Atiles. At these events the representatives for the Kelowna Public School at the Inter-School Track Meet were chosen. As no written record was kept of the names of the winners of the events, further particulars were not obtainable by the press.

The day's festivities were happily closed at a dance held at the Scout Hall, at which no grown-up people were allowed to take the floor together till after 10 o'clock. The Grand March was led off by Queen Nellie and Mayor Sutherland, followed by ex-Queen Una and Mr. J. W. Jones, M.L.A. Excellent music was provided by Winston's orchestra and all had a very enjoyable time. At this joyful event light heart and good will were the only qualifications for dancing and the terpsichorean art was not at all necessary. Ladies of varying ages were very pleased with the attentions and gallantry of young gentlemen, whose dancing will doubtless improve with the years, but whose politeness was beyond criticism.

Among those who took part in the day's amusements were a number of juveniles from rural schools, and it is safe to say that they enjoyed themselves. Both at the Athletic Ground and at the Scout Hall ample refreshments were available. The time was wasted between events and the Girl Guide Association under whose auspices this pleasant celebration was held, are very anxious to thank all who in any way helped to make it such a success.

he had promised to return and render all assistance he could. Since his return he had been informed that the Vernon district would furnish sixteen thousand birds, and Armstrong four thousand, so that with the other points which would undoubtedly join the movement, far more than the twenty thousand, necessary to form the branch, could be counted on. In the Okanagan section all except two local poultrymen had joined up and signed the contract. The general manager would be in Vernon next Friday and there was no doubt that the branch would be formed, with an excellent start. Thus this district would form part of the biggest egg marketing co-operative association now existing in the entire Dominion.

Mr. Fairley then spoke briefly on the contract form which had to be signed by those who joined the co-operative, and explained that one producer could become a member. The capital of the association, he stated, is $100,000; divided into 100,000 shares of the value of $1 each, every member having one share. Payment for eggs was made semi-monthly on the 15th and last day of each month by cheque on the Royal Bank, which could be cashed at par at any of the bank's branches. The marketing of the eggs would be done entirely at the headquarters at Vancouver and there would be a good market found for all the eggs this valley could produce.

Mr. Fairley, at the conclusion of his address, answered a number of questions put to him, the most important of which were: Q. Are the eggs of each individual shipper handled separately? A. Yes. Q. Has the "processing" of eggs been tried by the co-operative? A. One thousand cases have recently been "processed" as an experiment. This system consists of sterilization of plunging eggs for a few seconds into superheated vegetable oil. As an egg is sixty-eight per cent water, perfect sterilizing is effected. The system is greatly in vogue in California. Sterilized eggs have to be individually stamped as such. Q. How will the freight charges for collecting eggs sent to the central be charged? A. It is proposed to pool the freight charges, so that each member of the Okanagan will be able to reach the market as cheaply as any other member. Q. How many hens does a man need to have in order to become a member of the association? A. From one to ten thousand. Q. Does the Exchange at headquarters handle poultry? A. No, not at present, there has been no time to even consider the question, business having increased so rapidly during the past few months; the same applies to the question of handling fees.

After all questions had been satisfactorily answered, practically all present signed the contract forms, and the balance of the evening was spent in conversation and in partaking of the refreshments which the ladies of the proposed branch of the association had provided.

Mr. Fairley left the following day, Wednesday, for Summerland and will be there and at Penticton till the arrival of Mr. Milne, when they will proceed together to the meeting at Vernon, which will take place tomorrow. He expressed himself as more than satisfied at the number of contracts which have already been signed in this district and predicted a very bright future for the Okanagan branch of the Poultrymen's Co-operative Marketing Association.

The SILK DRESS you have always wanted

-at such a little price!

NEVER before in Canada, in the history of silk dress manufacturing, have such decidedly reasonable—almost revolutionary—prices been asked for silk frocks and sports dresses, Paris-styled!

In their trimmings, their needling, their finishing, those last-minute niceties of workmanship; in their exclusively modish lines so flatteringly trim; in their exquisite silk fabrics of newest shades—McMULLEN dresses express every refinement of good taste.

Their amazingly low price—so welcome to many women of innate taste but modest means—is the happy result of an intensely specialized knowledge of silk buying in the world's markets, of expert designing by fashion authorities.

Few makers could afford to buy such enormous supplies of imported silks and raw materials. None other has the wonderful manufacturing facilities nor the style artists necessary for exclusive creations.

Your McMULLEN silk or sports dress this spring and summer—with its chic truly Parisian—is wonderful value. See McMULLEN dresses at the store which advertises them in your local paper.

THURSDAY, MAY 10th, 1923

LUNCHEON TO
CO-OPERATIVE MANAGER

He realized that Mr. Pratt was filling a very difficult position, one that was not a bed of roses, but he trusted that every success would attend his management. The new movement was strange to many of them, who looked upon it with suspicion, but they had acquaintance with co-operative selling, and they must trust to Mr.
Pratt's business acumen and to a continuance of the fine record he had made for himself in California.

Mr. Taylor, on behalf of the fruit growers, cordially joined in the welcome of Mr. Pratt to the Kelowna district, of which it might be hoped that he would soon become a permanent resident. (Laughter.) The growers realized the problems facing Mr. Pratt, but they had every confidence in him and the directors of the Associated Growers were to be congratulated upon the choice they had made.

The speaker expressed strong dissatisfaction with the present state of the rate of salary to be paid Mr. Pratt.
It should be realized that when they got a suitable man for a big job, he would have to be paid a big salary.
Mr. Sapiro's advice had been not to fix the salary in advance but to get the man first and to pay him what he was worth—to measure the salary
up to the man and not the man down to the salary—and this advice had been followed.

He thought there was too much criticism, and that it should be kept under until the directors had a chance to show what was in them. Give them a fair show to start with, fair play.
He advocated, and hoped, that the association, not THE association, instead of criticizing.

Giving some figures as to the magnitude of the fruit industry, he stated the shipments in 1922 out of the province totalled 6,277 cars as against 951 in 1913. The acreage of fruit trees in the province he gave as 28,145,
with 6,252 acres more in small fruits.
The results of government investigation of the cost of production of a box of apples yielded the following figures: Year 1919, 81 cents per box,
with a profit to the grower of 55 cents per box; 1920, $1.30 per box, with a profit to the grower of 25 cents per box; 1921, $1.14 per box, with a loss to the grower of 39 cents per box.
Figures for 1922 were not available, but would show a greater loss than in 1921.

Turning to the claims of Kelowna for location of the headquarters of the Associated Growers, Mr. Taylor put forward other features not stressed by Mr. Jones, such as its social and sporting advantages. For the staff of the Associated Growers it could not be all work and no play, and sport had its own great value, as demonstrated by the gallantry of sportsmen in the Great War. Kelowna could offer tennis and badminton courts and a golf course, on all of which Interior championships had already been held or were to be held, and unrivalled aquatic facilities. All the needful social requirements were met by the local churches, schools and clubs, and Kelowna could give the staff a pleasant time.

He hoped, on behalf of the growers,
that Mr. Pratt's stay would be a pleasant one, and he assured him that he would do his utmost to discourage destructive criticism and to help his work forward in every way possible.

All the speakers were liberally applauded, but when Mr. Pratt rose to his feet to reply he was greeted with a regular salvo. He spoke in a manner that quickly gained the confidence and respect of his hearers, avoiding any floridity of phrase, making no rash promises just to gain popularity for the moment, and conveying the impression of sincerity and earnestness of purpose.

In opening, he deprecated modestly
the nice things that had been said about himself and attributed them to the goodwill towards the organization which he represented, as they knew little of him, but he would be glad to pass on the compliments to the directors and managers as evidence of the support that was being accorded to the movement. He wanted the gathering to feel that the praise extended to him was not going to his head. An old friend of his had a favourite saying of ancient Japanese origin:
"Equal to emergency;
Superior to success."

That was a standard that every man must live up to, and he intended to try to do so.
He felt it was a great honour to be placed at the head of such an organization as the Associated Growers, and it made him mighty humble. When he first came to the Okanagan he had almost decided not to stay, as the wrench was so great from all that had told him that he was to stay for so many years in California, but as he got deeper into things, he felt that it was his duty to stay with the game, do his little part and get others to do theirs. He realized that it was trouble and disaster
that brought the growers together,
and that there was a hard fight ahead.
Miracles had been worked in a year,
but he would do his best to get quick action and to better the situation as speedily as possible.

He was glad that previous speakers
had deprecated much of the criticism of the directors, who had been blamed
because they did not move faster.
In his judgment, the executive had done mightily fine work in accomplishing as much as they had done. Since he took office, he had worked with them from breakfast to midnight until Thursday last, when they took a holiday by quitting at 9.30 p.m. (Laughter.) The best way to disarm criticism was by giving an intelligent insight into what was going on, hence the local manager informed of the business in the making.
All wires would be bulletined daily
to the local managers or presidents.
This would give the local officials an insight into what was taking place at the central office and would enable them to inform the growers just as to what difficulties were being encountered, and he was also his intention to bulletin sales daily, so that the business done would be open to the locals. It would be the privilege of local managers to criticize, should they see fit. Pro-rating the distribution of orders was a frequent cause of friction and would have to be done very carefully. There would undoubtedly be criticism in consequence by local managers, but they would be at liberty to get the office wire and talk it over. By this open policy, they should have as little trouble as possible as they went along, instead of a large accumulation at the end of the season.

The foundation of any successful organization was confidence. There would inevitably be differences of viewpoint in each locality but, so long as they had confidence in the movement, these matters could always be adjusted.

He did not blame any district for having a very good opinion of itself,
as otherwise it would be a very bad district, and he was glad to note the enthusiastic faith of the gathering that dan in the predominance of Kelowna, especially as the proper location for the headquarters of the the Associated Growers. At the same time, he must remind them that they were apt to be somewhat prejudiced—like every other place that was worth while and like his own little daughter, who in an argument with a girl friend, had exalted him as the most upright man in Redlands, to the exclusion of their respective pastors. But, then, she was prejudiced! (Laughter.)

In closing, Mr. Pratt made an earnest plea for growers and business men alike to bear with the new organization and to give it a fair chance and the benefit of the doubt. He asked for this, not for personal reasons, but for the good of the movement and for the good of the growers themselves.
There was nothing like genuine, whole-hearted confidence from all sources to put heart and "pep" into the directorate and management.

Mr. Pratt was loudly applauded at the close of his remarks, and the audience rose and sang "For He's A Jolly Good Fellow," which was followed by three cheers and a tiger, and the gathering then dispersed.

WINFIELD (WOODS LAKE)

The Women's Institute held their monthly meeting on Thursday, May 3rd. Following the singing of "O Canada," the minutes of the previous meeting were read and adopted. There was a lot of business to discuss, among this being the arranging of a Baby Clinic,
to be held the same day as the Children's Art House and Sewing Competition.
Great interest is being shown in these events, as they are a new departure in our community. Mrs. Colborne kindly gave a demonstration and talk on rug making, of which art she is an expert. Mrs. Beasley and Miss Lodge served afternoon tea.

Mr. M. P. Williams is the proud owner of a lamb which weighed 19
pounds at birth.

Miss Irene Brodie returned from Vernon, where she has been for some months. Mrs. Rita Richards was also home from Vernon for the week end.

The Farmers' Institute met on Monday, the 7th, to hear a lecture by Mr.
Foley on the co-operative selling of eggs. Owing to short notice, it is regrettable that only 15 members turned out. Mr. M. P. Williams is now busy getting poultry men to sign up in connection with the new scheme.

The United Service was conducted by Mr. Campbell Brown on Sunday last, when a good attendance was noted.
We are glad to see our Japanese residents taking an interest in the meeting,
also sending their children to Sunday School.

by the audience.

Under the very effective leadership of Mr. John Borthwick, A.L.C.M., the orchestra of the Philharmonic Society, sixteen strong, gave consistent and sympathetic support throughout from overture to finale, and the accompaniments were played with all needful repression, where required.

The role of "Major-General Stanley" was filled by Mr. G. Benmore in quite his best style, and his acting was particularly good in the second act, when he was shown as suffering from qualms of conscience. Mr. H. S. Atkinson made a "Pirate King" of striking appearance, and his rich and sonorous voice did ample justice to his vocal numbers. He had a very good second-in-command in Mr. Peter Holes as "Samuel," whose singing and acting were both of much merit. The leading part, that of "Frederic, the Pirate Apprentice," was most creditably filled by Mr. A. F. Graves, who made excellent use of his vocal powers throughout and interpreted the conscientious difficulties of the "Slave of Duty" in such a way as to keep the sympathy of the audience from start to finish. He was particularly good in the recitatives and in his duets with "Ruth" (Mrs. A. L. Soames) and "Mabel" (Mrs. Trenwith). These two ladies filled their parts with much distinction. Their singing was delightful and their acting vivacious and in thorough accordance with the spirit of the characters they had to impersonate. Mesdames Tutt, Lowery and Mantle made sprightly and merry leading daughters of the Major-General, Edith, "Kate" and "Isabel." As the "Sergeant of Police," Mr. Leopold Hayes scored a hit with his topical verses upon the troubles of the shippers and canners.

The spirit and verve with which the whole company carried out the interpretation of the opera showed the results of months of patient work and training and did credit to the untiring efforts of Mr. A. L. Soames as stage manager. On both nights he was called before the curtain and received a tremendous ovation, but in a few words of thanks he modestly disclaimed all credit for the success achieved and attributed it to the earnest efforts of all who had lent their talents to the theatrical Society. Amongst these should be specially mentioned the pianist, Mrs. A. J. Pritchard, L.R.A.M., whose skilful and willing assistance was of the greatest possible help.

It has been arranged that the opera will be presented once more in the Empress Theatre on Saturday evening, at popular prices, so that all who missed the previous performances may have an opportunity to enjoy one of the best musical treats of the year. Tonight, the opera will be produced at Vernon and on Thursday of next week at Summerland.

A very pleasant dance was given by the Kelowna Lodge No. 52, B.P.O.E., last Thursday evening in the Elks' Hall, the music being provided by the Banff Elks' Orchestra and the catering being in the capable hands of the ladies of the I.O.D.E. A considerable number of applicants for work keep drifting into town, and numerous enquiries are now being made by ranchers and others who need help, so that the office of Mr. E. W.
